

- ST. ELMO -

- COLUMBUS - GEORGIA -

Muscogee Co.

HABS NO

~~14 29~~

129

HABS

GA.

108 - COLUM

6 -

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Georgia

Historic American Buildings Survey
Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer
Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

ST ELMO

Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia

Owner: Miss Florence Slade.

Date of Erection: Remodelled 1832. Original part of house built earlier.

Present Condition: Very much run down. Porch added 1832.

Number of Stories: Two and basement.

Materials or Construction: Brick foundation stuccoed, wood floors, exterior walls brick stuccoed, shingle roof. Two story <sup>COLUMBED</sup> veranda around three sides.

Other Existing Records: Garden History of Georgia <sup>p 100-101</sup> compiled by Lorraine M. Cooney. Records by P. Thornton Marye, District Officer, of HABS., 1934. Student rendered measured drawings in Department of Architecture of Georgia Tech. and of Ala. Poly. Institute. Blueprints in possession of Miss Florence Slade by T. E. Lockwood, Architect, Columbus, dated 8/15/32. Georgia Landmarks, Memorials and Legends, by Knight, vol. I, chap. 42. <sup>MAJOR, H. - DOMESTIC ARCH. OF EARLY AMERICAN REPUBLIC, plate 118.</sup>

Additional Data: It became property of John Howard and was remodelled by his son-in-law, Seaborn Jones 1832.

Here Mrs. Augusta Evans Wilson, granddaughter of John Howard, and niece of Seaborn Jones, wrote "St Elmo."

ST ELMO

Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia

Additional Data, Cont'd.

1878
Captain James J. Slade bought the place from the Jones estate and here opened a select school for young women to which he gave the name "St Elmo". The property is known to some as the Garrard-Slade Place.

Harold Bush-Brown

HAROLD BUSH-BROWN

DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS